Note continued

The Deputy Commissioner was written to in terms of the above order. From his reply and from the enclosures received therewith, it is observed that the petitioner Venkatalakshmamma is about 55 years of age and blind of one eye and has no means of subsistence, and that she has a son aged 18 years (but stated to be of 16 years by the townspeople in their mahazar) and a daughter aged 9 years, but that as the son is still studying, he is unable to support the family. The Dy Comr ~~submitted~~ recommends that the said allowance may be continued to her for 5 years more -

Muzrai Department.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that one Subbiah late Pariahark of the Bidadi Annachattram, died of plague leaving two young children and a widow. He has left nothing for them to live upon. The widow's eye sight is defective, and the children are young and unable to earn their livelihood. I therefore request that Government may be pleased to sanction one seer of rice to them daily from the Bidadi Chattram as recommended by the Closepet Division Officer.

2. The vernacular papers ending with Closepet Division Officer's Yadi No. 466 of the 14th November 1899 are herewith submitted for reference and favor of return.
